"2026—A Year To Rebuild"

Acts 14:19-22

Introduction:_____

_____

_____

I. FIRST, LET US REBULD THROUGH PERSONAL EVANGELISM (Act 14:19-21).

Before returning to the Father, He gave his disciples an amazing task. Here it is according to John 20:19-22:

A. First, out task requires more than we can give—that's why God sent the Holy Spirit. (20:22). ". . . he breathed on them and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost."

1. First, it is a divine task.
2. Secondly, it is a redemptive task
3. Thirdly, it is a supernatural task,
4. Fourthly it is a shared task.

B. Secondly, we need to be reminded that this is a very important thing that God has called us to do.

1. It is a divine responsibility!
2. It is an awesome responsibility!
3. It is a commanded obligation!

C. Thirdly, we need to remember that the Gospel message will absolutely transform people's lives.

Four questions that all of us need to answer:

1. What can I do?
2. What should I do?
3. What is God telling me to do?
4. What am I willing to do?

II. SECONDLY, LET US REBUILD THROUGH _____ (ACTS 14:21-22).

A. How can we be encouragers to other _____?

B. How can we be encouragers to our _____?

C. How can we be encouragers in our own _____?

III. THIRDLY, LET US REBUILD THROUGH _____ (Acts 14:21-22a).

What would this involve?

A. First, it would _____ prioritizing expository preaching that equips the saints wit whole Bible counsel.

B. Secondly, it would _____cultivating church members who model holiness and that would guard Bible doctrine.

C. Thirdly, it would _____ some practical mutual exhortation in small groups to study the Bible.

D. Fourthly, it would be _____ to the people the concept of world evangelism through missions giving,
