WHEN THE UNEXPLAINED HAPPENS

Luke 13:1-9

Introduction:_____

_____

_____

I. FIRST, NOTICE WHAT WE MAY CALL AS AN _____ ACTIVITY (Luke 13:1-2).

A. First, notice the _____ that was presented (13:1)

B. Secondly, notice the _____ that was proclaimed (13:2-3).

CONCLUSION: We live among a fallen _____.

II. SECONDLY, NOTE WHAT WE MAY CALL AN _____ ACCIDENT (Luke 13:4-5).

A. First, note what Jesus _____ (13:4a).

B. Secondly, note how Jesus _____ (13:4b-5).

CONCLUSION: We live on a fallen _____.

III. THIRDLY, CONSIDER WHAT MAY CALL AN _____ AFFECTION (Luke 13:6-9).

A. First, consider how his _____ to the nation of Israel.

B. Secondly, consider how this _____ to us.

CONCLUSION: Note some lessons to be learned from was we call national disasters, unexpected activities, unforeseen accidents and undeserved affection in our lives:

1. First, tragedies _____ from God's curse because of the sin of the human race.

2. Secondly, tragedies _____ us that life is fragile and that we must get right with God before we die and face judgment.

3. Thirdly, tragedies _____ drive us to repentance, which will spare us from perishing.